

From: Patti Batchelder
Sent: Wednesday, December 03, 2014
To: Director - GASB
Subject: State and local governments should reveal tax breaks for businesses

Dear Sirs;

Corporations can get big tax breaks and subsidies by playing one local government off against another. This increases the tax burden that the rest of us must pay. Such special breaks should be against the law completely, but, failing that, the amounts of such concessions should be public knowledge. Please adopt a rule to make state and local governments responsible for publishing this information.

Thank you.

Patti Batchelder